Day 1-3: Qorokwe Camp, Okavango Delta (Thu, 28 March to Sat, 30 March)

Okavango Delta

Situated in the northwestern corner of Botswana, the Okavango Delta is a World Heritage Site as it is the largest inland delta in the world. The magnificent Okavango River sprawls out over the dry sands of the Kalahari Desert forming this flourishing waterlogged oasis featuring countless meandering waterways and crystal clear lagoons studded with water lilies, as well as fertile floodplains and reeded islands inhabited with abundant wildlife. The Okavango Delta stretches over 15000 square kilometres. Visitors can enjoy a number of wonderful activities such as game viewing, fishing, bird watching or taking an authentic guided Mokoro excursion through this wetland paradise in a traditional dugout canoe. Commonly spotted animals include: lion, rhino, leopard, giraffe, hippos, elephants, crocodiles and countless species of bird.

Day Itinerary

Day 1 Thursday 28 March 2019:

Flight from Maun Airport to Qorokwe

Arrive at Qorokwe

Overnight: Qorokwe Camp View iBrochure

The name Qorokwe means "the place where the buffalo broke through the bush into the water" and is evocative of the high-density game area in which the camp is situated. The diverse habitats of the south-eastern Okavango reveal support a wealth of wildlife, earning the area's well-deserved reputation as a top Botswana safari destination.

Qorokwe Camp has nine tented suites, one of which is a spacious family suite with its own splash pool. En-suite facilities feature a convertible indoor/outdoor shower. Built on raised wooden platforms, the main area includes a dining area, lounge, library, bar and an infinity pool overlooking an expansive lagoon. Highlights of Qorokwe's dining experiences include festive boma evenings and scrumptious pizzas from the camp's bespoke oven.

INSIDER'S TIP: Keep a look out for the secretive white rhino which have been reintroduced into this area.
